B111. Please indicate the smoking tobacco products included in calculating prevalence for question B11:

Smoking status was consisted of two questions. First the respondents were asked whether they had ever smoked (yes/no) and for those who reported ever smoking, a follow-up question was asked 'Do you currently smoke'. The follow-up question included explicitly the use of cigarettes, cigars and pipe, but the question on ever use did not specify any type of smoked tobacco.

B112[1_SQ001]. Please indicate the age range to which the data used to answer question B11 refer: [Age range][From]

B112[1_SQ002]. Please indicate the age range to which the data used to answer question B11 refer: [Age range][To]

64

B113A. Please indicate the year of the data used to answer question B11:

2017

B113B. Please indicate the source of the data used to answer question B11:

Data for the question B11 were derived from the National FinSote Survey, which was collected in the spring 2017 survey. For the 2017 survey, a random sample (n=10 000) of Finnish adults aged at least 20 years was derived from the Population Register Center. Information for this survey was collected with mail and online questionnaires. The number of respondents was 4496 (response rate 45 %). <https://www.thl.fi/en/web/thlfi-en/research-and-expertwork/population-studies/national-finsote-survey>

B114[SQ001]. Please provide the definitions of "current smoker", "daily smoker", "occasional smoker", "former smoker" and "never smoker" used in this report. [Current smoker]

Smoking status was acquired by two questions. First, the respondents were asked if they had ever smoked. If the respondent answered 'yes' to this question, it was further asked 'Do you currently smoke', with responses being 'Yes, daily', 'Occasionally', 'Not at all'. "Current smokers" includes both daily and occasional smokers.

B114[SQ002]. Please provide the definitions of “current smoker”, “daily smoker”, “occasional smoker”, “former smoker” and “never smoker” used in this report. [Daily smoker]

Smoking status was acquired by two questions. First, the respondents were asked if they had ever smoked. If the respondent answered ‘yes’ to this question, it was further asked ‘Do you currently smoke’, with responses being ‘Yes, daily’, ‘Occasionally’, ‘Not at all’. “Daily smokers” includes daily smokers.

B114[SQ003]. Please provide the definitions of “current smoker”, “daily smoker”, “occasional smoker”, “former smoker” and “never smoker” used in this report. [Occasional smoker]

Smoking status was acquired by two questions. First, the respondents were asked if they had ever smoked. If the respondent answered ‘yes’ to this question, it was further asked ‘Do you currently smoke’, with responses being ‘Yes, daily’, ‘Occasionally’, ‘Not at all’. “Occasional smokers” includes occasional smokers.

B114[SQ004]. Please provide the definitions of “current smoker”, “daily smoker”, “occasional smoker”, “former smoker” and “never smoker” used in this report. [Former smoker]

Smoking status was acquired by two questions. First, the respondents were asked if they had ever smoked. If the respondent answered ‘yes’ to this question, it was further asked ‘Do you currently smoke’, with responses being ‘Yes, daily’, ‘Occasionally’, ‘Not at all’. “Former smokers” includes those respondents who had ever smoked but did not smoke currently.

B114[SQ005]. Please provide the definitions of “current smoker”, “daily smoker”, “occasional smoker”, “former smoker” and “never smoker” used in this report. [Never smoker]

The respondents were asked if they had ever smoked. “Never smokers” are those respondents who answered ‘no’ to this question.

B115. Please provide a brief explanation of the trend in smoking prevalence in the adult population in the past two years or since submission of your last report.

Trends in smoking prevalence 2014-2017

It must be noted that the age range since the last reporting instrument (in 2016) has changed from 15–64 to 20–64. Some of the changes in smoking prevalence may be attributed to this change. The prevalence of daily smoking decreased slightly from 15 % to 13 %. The prevalence of occasional smokers increased from 6 % to 10 %. The percentage of former smokers increased notably in men (from 22 % to 34 %) and in women (from 19 % to 28 %). The prevalence of never smokers decreased both among men (from 51 % to 40 %) and women (from 62 % to 52 %).

B121. Please indicate the smoking tobacco products included in calculating prevalence for question B12:
Smoking status was consisted of two questions. First the respondents were asked whether they had ever smoked (yes/no) and for those who reported ever smoking, a follow-up question was asked 'Do you currently smoke'. The follow-up question included explicitly the use of cigarettes, cigars and pipe, but the question on ever use did not specify any type of smoked tobacco.

Males

Smoking has decreased among 25–34-year old males (from 33 % to 30 %) and among 35–44-year-olds (from 24 % to 21 %). Smoking has increased slightly among 45–54-year old and 55–64-year old males.

Females

Smoking has increased slightly among females except among 25–34-year-olds. The increase among 35–44-year-olds is from 17 % to 20 % and among 45–54-year-olds from 19 % to 22 %. Among 55–64-year olds, the increase is from 17 % to 18 %.

Males

The prevalence of current smokeless tobacco (snus) use in the adult population has increased since 2014 (5,6 %) to 2017 (12,1 %). Both daily and occasional snus use has increased. The prevalence of never users has decreased since 2014 from 84% to 71% in 2017.

Data for the question B12 were derived from the National FinSote Survey, which was collected in the spring 2017 survey. For the 2017 survey, a random sample (n=10 000) of Finnish adults aged at least 20 years was derived from the Population Register Center. B143. Please provide a brief explanation of the trend in current use of smokeless tobacco by adult age groups in the past two years or since submission of your last report.

The trend in snus use 2014–2017

It must be noted that the prevalence of snus use in this reporting instrument are derived from another survey than in earlier rounds of the reporting instrument. Also, the age-range since the last reporting instrument (in 2016) has changed from 15–64 to 25–54 considering snus use. Some of the changes in the prevalence of snus use may be attributed to this change.

Males

There is a significant increase in snus use among 25–34-year old males (from 13 % to 21 %). In other age-groups the prevalence increased also: for 35–44-year-olds from 8 % to 11 % and for 45–54-year olds from 2 % to 3,7 %.

Females

The prevalence of snus use among females has increased slightly in every age group, but the prevalence of snus use is very low for adult women.

Note: the prevalences in B15 are age-adjusted prevalences of daily smoking. The prevalences come from the Survey on work and well-being among people of foreign origin (UTH), which is a Finnish population study focusing on people of foreign origin. The data was collected in 2014. total of 6000 people of foreign origin, aged between 15 and 64 years, were randomly selected for the survey. The sample selection is based on the definition of people of foreign origin, which draws on a classification used by statistics authorities in Finland and the other Nordic countries. According to this classification, people of foreign origin mean persons whose parents (or the only known parent) were born outside Finland and who themselves are born in or outside Finland and are citizens of Finland or of some other country. The survey will be carried out as face-to-face interviews and the persons chosen for the survey will, first, receive by post an invitation letter. Then, an interviewer from Statistics Finland will contact them by phone and arrange the time, place and language of the interview. https://thl.fi/fi/web/thlfi-en/research-and-expertwork/projects-and-programmes/survey-on-work-and-well-being-among-people-of-foreign-origin-uth

B161. Please indicate the tobacco products included in calculating prevalence for question B16:
Smoking tobacco = daily use of cigarettes, smokeless tobacco = current (daily and occasional) use of snus

B162A. Please indicate the year of the data used to answer question B16:
2017

B162B. Please indicate the source of the data used to answer question B16:
Tobacco use in the adolescent population (12 to 18 years) has been monitored via the nationwide Adolescent Health and Lifestyle Survey, a mail survey conducted biennially since 1977 with comparable methods. The latest survey was conducted in the spring of 2015 to which a total of 4,213 adolescents responded (45 %). Data presented here originates from this 2015 survey. The survey report "The Adolescent Health and Lifestyle Survey 2015. Adolescent smoking, alcohol and substance use in 1977-2015" is attached to this report instrument; <http://urn.fi/URN:ISBN:978-952-00-3592-1>. The report does not include observations necessary for calculating the total prevalence (boys and girls together) but was separately attained.

B163. Please provide the definition of "current smoking/tobacco use" used to answer question B16 in the space below.
Current smoking tobacco equals here daily use of cigarettes. To be labelled as daily smoker in Adolescent Health and Lifestyle Survey (12-18-year-olds) equals having smoked over 50 cigarettes in lifetime, having smoked during last seven days and smoking at least once a day. Also those who reported smoking "at least once a week, but not daily" but still smoked at least one cigarette per day were labelled into daily cigarette smokers.
Current smokeless tobacco equals here daily or occasional use of snus (usually Swedish-type moist snuff). To be labelled as current user of snus in Adolescent Health and Lifestyle Survey (12-18-year-olds) equals using snus occasionally or at least once a day.
Total numbers were not presented in the original reports by age groups. Those are calculated to this reporting instrument from the percentages of males and females in each age group.

B164. Please provide a brief explanation of the trend in tobacco use by young persons in the past two years or since submission of your last report.
Tobacco use trend 2015-2017 by young persons
Among the Finnish adolescents (12-18-year-olds), the decreasing trend in daily smoking continued over the past two years, both among boys and girls. Experimenting with smoking decreased among 14 to 16-year-olds. Current snus use has increased among 18-year-old boys. Experimenting with snus stayed on the same level as in 2015.

Data for the question B21 were derived from National FinHealth Study. The purpose of the FinHealth Study is to collect up-to-date information on the health and well-being of adults residing in Finland, and on the factors influencing their health and well-being. The study is carried out at 50 localities in 2017, with the objective of studying 10,000 randomly selected persons over the age of 18. The study consists of a physical examination and questionnaires. <https://thl.fi/en/web/thlfi-en/research-and-expertwork/population-studies/national-finhealth-study>. A report will be published in the spring 2018, which will include description the study protocol, response rates, etc.

B3. Tobacco-related mortality

B31. Do you have information on tobacco-related mortality in your population?

Yes

B32. What is the estimated total number of deaths attributable to tobacco use in your population?

4310.0000000000

B33. If available, please provide any additional information on mortality attributable to tobacco use (e.g. lung cancer, cardiovascular diseases) in your jurisdiction.

Below are the estimated fractions of all deaths attributable to conditions that were used in calculating the total smoking-attributable deaths:

Cancer / Malignant neoplasm (47 % of deaths attributable to cancer/malignant neoplasm)

Respiratory Conditions (48 % of deaths attributable to respiratory conditions)

Cardiovascular conditions (8 % of deaths attributable to cardiovascular conditions)

B4. Tobacco-related costs

B41. Do you have information on the economic burden of tobacco use in your population, e.g. the overall cost of tobacco use imposed on your society?
Yes

B42. Please provide details (e.g. direct (health care-related) and indirect costs and, if possible, the method used to estimate these costs).

It is estimated that the direct costs of smoking totalled around EUR 290–294 million in 2012. Smoking-attributable income transfers are estimated to total some EUR 327 million. The total direct economic burden of smoking is, thus, estimated to be around EUR 617–621 million. The indirect costs of smoking are estimated at around EUR 840–930 million. The total economic burden of smoking is, thus, estimated to be around EUR 1.5 billion.

The smoking-attributable fractions were calculated using the adjusted relative risk estimates of the CPS-II-study and the survey data on gender- and age-specific proportions of smokers and former smokers in the Finnish population.

Productivity costs for smoking-attributable mortality and morbidity costs were estimated by using a human capital method and they were discounted with 3 % discount rate.

Data on healthcare services utilization for specialized somatic healthcare and for basic healthcare were derived from the national care register for health care. Data on medical reimbursements came from the Finnish statistic on medicines. The occupational health care costs were estimated according to the distribution of the smoking attributable basic health care utilization.

The other direct costs of smoking included the costs of fires and monitoring and prevention costs due to smoking. The costs of fires attributable to smoking were estimated using the national fire statistics and the monitoring and prevention costs were estimated from the annual report of the authorities that conduct tobacco monitoring and prevention.

The productive losses included also the costs of lost productivity due to smoking breaks and the lost productivity due to sickness leave. The productivity losses due to smoking breaks were estimated using the method presented in Berman et al. (Berman M et al. Estimating the cost of a smoking employe. Tobacco Control 2014; 23: 428-433, doi:10.1136/tobaccocontrol-2012-050888). The productivity losses due to sick leaves due to smoking were estimated using the gender and age-group information on average wages and the smoking attributable fraction on sick leaves.

The direct income transfers attributable to smoking were also estimated. The sick leave compensations and disability pensions were estimated with the smoking attributable fraction method. The family pension compensations attributable to smoking were estimated indirectly according to the smoking attributable mortality and aggregate level information on family pension.

The excise duty on cigarettes and fine-cut smoking tobacco comprises of a combination of specific and ad valorem taxes and a minimum excise duty, which is levied as a specific tax if the combination of the specific and ad valorem tax does not exceed a certain threshold. As of 1.1.2018, the similar tax structure applies also to cigars and cigarillos.

Yes

C112. Have you partially developed and implemented tobacco control strategies by including tobacco control in national health, public health or health promotion strategies, plans and programmes?

N/A

C113. Is any aspect of tobacco control that is referred to in the Convention included in any national strategy, plan or programme?

N/A

C114[C114a]. Have you established or reinforced and financed: [a focal point for tobacco control?]

Yes

C114[C114b]. Have you established or reinforced and financed: [a tobacco control unit?]

Yes

C114[C114c]. Have you established or reinforced and financed: [a national coordinating mechanism for tobacco control?]

No

C115. Please provide details (e.g. the nature of the national coordinating mechanism, the institution to which the focal point for tobacco control or the tobacco control unit belongs).

The Ministry of Social Affairs and Health has a leading role in tobacco control in Finland. Tobacco control is located under the unit that coordinates substance abuse and harm prevention policies. The Ministry is responsible for law-drafting, general strategic guidance as well as international cooperation in this field.

The National Institute for Health and Welfare (THL) has a small tobacco control unit (2,6 persons). THL is responsible for monitoring, research and development of activities related to reducing tobacco use. The Finnish Institute of Occupational Health (TTL) is a specialist body in activities to reduce smoking at work environment. The Regional State Administrative Agency is responsible for guiding municipalities to implement the Tobacco Act and the municipalities supervise locally prohibitions and restrictions of the Act. The regulations of the Tobacco Act are overseen by the National Supervisory Authority for Welfare and Health (Valvira).

There is active coordination between these state authorities but no official coordinating structure. And there is a Tobacco-free Finland 2030 network, where 18 different organisations (mainly NGOs but also authorities) are working together to promote a non-tobacco, nicotine-free lifestyle.

C116. Please provide a brief description of the progress made in implementing Article 5.1 and 5.2 (General obligations) in the past two years or since submission of your last report.

The reform of the Tobacco Act was finished in 2016. The previous Tobacco Act was from 1976 and it was changed more than 40 times during 40 years.

No

C123. Please provide details in the space below.

Finnish public health policies are quite well protected from the tobacco industry. There is no tobacco industry in Finland. The interaction with the representatives of industry is limited mainly to open requests for comment. However there is no extensive public repository on industrys activities.

NGOs like ASH Finland report that they actively disseminate information and raise discussion on the industrys activities, interests and methods. In addition, many NGOs have adopted the policy not to interact with the tobacco companies, their affiliates or any other companies which work with tobacco industry, such as advertising companies.

C124. Please provide a brief description of the progress made in implementing Article 5.3 in the past two years or since submission of your last report.

There was a lively discussion about tobacco industry activities in media in 2017 when professor Heikki Hiilamo published a report about tobacco industry tactics worldwide (including Nordic countries and Finland).

C227. Please provide a brief summary of complete and partial measures, with specific details of the partial measures that have been implemented:

C227a. Banning tobacco smoking in indoor workplaces

Under Section 74(1)(1) of the Tobacco Act (549/2016), smoking is prohibited in the indoor areas of buildings, vehicles or similar places that are accessible to the public or employees or accessible to customers for the purpose of providing commercial or public services.

Section 76: In the indoor rooms referred to in section 74(1)(1), smoking may be allowed in a separate smoking room that has been approved for smoking purposes under the Land Use and Building Act (132/1999). In such cases, it shall be ensured that tobacco smoke can not enter areas where smoking is prohibited. Smoking rooms shall not be located in connection with indoor areas that are mainly used by persons under the age of 18. Further provisions on technical requirements concerning the structural and functional properties of smoking rooms have been given by government decree 601/2016 (transitional provision until 20 May 2018).

Under Section 77, smoking can be allowed on the indoor premises of restaurants only in a separate smoking area approved for smoking. In that case it must, however, be seen to it that tobacco smoke does not spread to the area where smoking is prohibited. It is prohibited to serve food or drink, or to eat or drink in the smoking area. Further provisions are given by government decree 601/2016.

C227b. Banning tobacco smoking in public transport

Under Section 74 of the Tobacco Act (549/2016), smoking is prohibited in the indoor areas of vehicles that are accessible to the public or employees or accessible to customers for the purpose of providing commercial or public services.

Under Section 75, however, smoking is allowed in the home or private vehicle of a customer, employee, economic operator, or self-employed person and any other indoor areas that are in the exclusive use of persons belonging to the same family and others living in the same household.

C227c. Banning tobacco smoking in indoor public places

Under Section 74(1)(1) of the Tobacco Act (549/2016), smoking is prohibited in the indoor areas of buildings, vehicles or similar places that are accessible to the public or employees or accessible to customers for the purpose of providing commercial or public services.

Under section 75 there are derogations from general smoking bans and smoking is allowed:

THE CANCER SOCIETY

The Cancer Society of Finland has had a programme to prevent the uptake of tobacco product use and to promote their cessation among adolescents since 2001. In addition to cigarettes, emphases have been put on smokeless tobacco and in recent years on e-cigarettes. The programme increasingly emphasized participatory approaches with the adolescents. It also collaborates widely with other NGOs and with the relevant public sector segments.

The programme has in 2016-2017 emphasized following activities: 1) communication and campaigns to adolescents through new digital service including a website and active social media channels, recent campaign have included themes such as nicotine addiction, health effects of e-cigarettes and risks of snus use in young athletes, 2) website and campaigns for parents and professionals such as teachers, youth workers, coaches, 3) strengthening nicotine free trade schools, youth work and sports by developing good practices together with the adolescents and the adults working in these places and spreading these practices, 4) policy work on protecting young people from tobacco and nicotine products, for example through smuggling and illegal trade of smokeless tobacco, as well as ensuring their protection from e-cigarettes, which came to the Finnish market in 2016. With the policy work, we have also campaigned against smuggling and illegal trade of snus by the Finnish borders against Sweden and in the harbors. To ensure that the work is evidence-based the programme conducts small-scale research on policy-relevant topics on tobacco control (recently on snus and e-cigarettes), on strengthening smokefree environment for adolescents and on adolescents' views on the products.

THE FINNISH HEART ASSOCIATION support smoke-free domestic environments to children and their parents by the Smart Family Programme.

FILHA PROJECTS:

Influencing the development of the health care system regarding tobacco cessation support as part of the national health sector reform have been a priority for Finnish Lung Health Association (Filha) during 2016-2017. Filha has conducted nation-wide trainings of health professionals in tobacco dependence treatment best practices ever since the national Current Care guideline first was introduced in 2002. During 2017 special emphasis has been put on developing tobacco cessation for mental health and substance abuse patients in a government funded project including 11/21 hospital districts in Finland. The work is executed by training health professionals, improving e.g. medical record documentation and referral practices as well as including peer support elements in the cessation support provided by health professionals. An internet-based tobacco cessation course for health professionals dealing with mental health and substance abuse patients has also been developed by Filha during 2017.

Filha started a project to develop cessation practices and tobacco dependence treatment for pregnant women in 2017. The work has started in maternal health care units in three municipalities in Finland and will result in a national recommendation and practical tool kit by the end of 2019.

Filha has developed a peer support-based tobacco cessation counselling model including group and individual face-to-face as well as internet-based counseling. The model has during 2016-2017 been developed especially taking into consideration population groups that on average use a lot of tobacco products such as mental health patients, unemployed, certain immigrant groups and vocational school students.

Filha continues to work in collaboration with the Defense Forces of Finland influencing attitudes and practices regarding tobacco control by increasing general knowledge about tobacco related issues as well as cessation support. During 2016-2017 a guideline for tobacco-free Defence Forces was produced and nation-wide implementation of the guideline conducted. Through these actions a decrease in tobacco consumption for military conscripts and personnel of the Defense Forces is expected.
