B123. Please provide a brief explanation of the trend in current smoking prevalence by age group in the past two years or since submission of your last report, if data are available.

Comparison with data from previous survey, conducted by Chief Sanitary Inspectorate in year 2015 shows that while among adults aged 20-29 years old, daily smoking prevalence dropped from 29% to 19% among males and from 18% to 13% in female population. Among those aged 30-39 years old, percentage of daily smokers have dropped among males from 36% to 27%, but in female population it has risen from 18% to 31%. A significant increase in prevalence of daily smoking occurred among males aged 40-49 years old (from 28% to 40%), while among females this proportion has dropped from 27% to 22%. Increase of daily smoking prevalence was also observed in males aged 50-59 years old (from 36% to 39%), while among those aged 60 years old or older this proportion has not changed during last two years (31% in 2015, 30% in 2017). Among females, percentage of daily smokers among those aged 60 years and over has increased from 13% to 19%, while no change was observed among those aged 50-59 years old (19% daily smokers in 2015, 21% in year 2017).

It has to be taken into consideration that both abovementioned surveys were conducted on the small samples of adult respondents (approx. 1000 persons, of which approx. 250 daily smokers were subjected to the analysis by age groups). Thus, reliability of data reported above might be limited

Pursuant to these provisions an entry in the register of producers of the raw tobacco, conducted by the National Centre of Rural Support, is a condition of leading the activity in the cultivation of the tobacco plant, the production or sales of the raw tobacco by the farming producer. Provisions are aimed i.a. at eliminating the inflow of the raw tobacco from the national production to illegal manufacturing companies of tobacco products. Due to this provisions the cultivation of the tobacco plant and the production and sale of the raw tobacco have to be provided with monitoring and the supervision. Producers of the raw tobacco, who are registered, will have a duty of sharing specific information about their crops and the sale of the raw tobacco. C3213. If you have any other relevant information pertaining to but not covered in this section, please provide details in the space below.

Another issue that has been settled in Poland, on the occasion of the implementation of the Directive 2014/40/UE, are the provisions prohibiting sales at a distance, including cross-border sales of tobacco products and electronic cigarettes. The adopted directive is consistent with the principle of prudence regarding the use of a toxic, poisonous substance – nicotine. Moreover, such a solution will introduce significant limitations in the availability of electronic cigarettes and liquids filling minors. With this in mind, all sorts of proposals involving the registration of those making mail-order sales and the introduction of devices that verify the age of the customer, do not deserve acceptance because of the illusory control and inefficiency in reducing the possibility to purchase by unauthorized persons.

Through the implementation of the provisions concerning the ban on distance selling, Poland was also in the group of fourteen European Union Member States which have decided to introduce this type of solution. Undoubtedly, this is an example of the proper clarification of Member States' cooperation in the field of the protection of the health of young Europeans.

E. PRIORITIES AND COMMENTS

E1. What are the priorities for implementation of the WHO Framework Convention on Tobacco Control in your jurisdiction?

Priorities are the same as two years ago:

A total ban on smoking in all public places and worksites; a total ban on advertisement and promotion of tobacco products (especially concerning points of sale advertising and promoting tobacco products during mass events); Implementing and strengthening progressive tax and price policy for tobacco products (excise tobacco tax on average EU level); ensuring sufficient funding for tobacco control and primary prevention of tobacco-attributable morbidity and mortality.
In order to monitor the changes in tobacco use and smoking patterns it is necessary to establish a surveillance system, that would include surveys conducted on large sample of respondents (at least 8000 or larger), such as GATS. It is necessary to conduct such surveys on regular basis (i.e. every 5 years). Such monitoring system would allow for more detailed analyses of changes in tobacco use patterns in different socio-demographic groups. As lung cancer has recently become the first cause of cancer mortality in women, it would also be beneficial to create surveillance system for monitoring tobacco use among females. It is also necessary to ensure regular (i.e. every 3-5 years) implementation of nationwide surveys concerning tobacco use among youth (such as GYTS).

After more than two years work on the Act Amending the Act on the protection of health against the consequences of tobacco use and tobacco, it was signed on 11 August 2016 by the President of the Republic of Poland, and officially published on 24 August 2016.

The most important new regulations arising directly from the provisions of the Directive Directive 2014/40/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 3 April 2014 on the approximation of the laws, regulations and administrative provisions of the Member States concerning the manufacture, presentation and sale of tobacco and related products and repealing Directive 2001/37/EC as implemented are:

- prohibiting the marketing of cigarettes with a characteristic flavour (except for menthol cigarettes, established in the Directive as a 6-year transition period, i.e. 2020);
- introduction of the obligation to affix to tobacco packaging health warnings occupying 65% of the external area of the package;
- obliging manufacturers or importers of tobacco products to provide a list of all ingredients used in the manufacture of tobacco products (the obligation applies to presenting a list of all additives used in a given year);
- increase reporting requirements for manufacturers and importers of tobacco products regarding additives contained in the priority list, which will be developed by the European Commission;
- labeling for unit packaging of tobacco products to record the movements of these packages, so that the movement and origin of tobacco products can be tracked;
- mandating notification by manufacturers or importers (at the latest six months prior to the intended introduction to the national market) data on novel tobacco products and electronic cigarettes or containers;
- a ban on advertising and promotion of e-cigarettes or containers;
- the introduction of appropriate technical requirements for manufacturers and importers of electronic cigarettes or containers;
- a ban on cross-border sales of tobacco products.
- When working on the amendment of the law, Poland introduced the following regulations directly unrelated to the implemented provisions of the Directive:
 - ban on the sale of electronic cigarettes to adolescents under 18 years of age;
 - introduction of text warnings at the locations of sales on the prohibition of the sale of electronic cigarettes to persons under 18 years of age;
 - reduction in the smoking of electronic cigarette analogous to the current ban on smoking tobacco in public places;
 - a ban the sale of electronic cigarettes or containers to persons engaged in medical activities, schools and educational institutions, sports and recreational facilities, and vending machines;
 - a ban on cross-border sales of electronic cigarettes or containers at a distance (e.g. via the Internet).

It should also be noted that all proposed new regulations in the draft amendment to the Law amending the Law on the Protection of Health against the use of tobacco and tobacco products, including regulations on the prohibition of smoking electronic cigarettes in public places, have been unequivocally supported by the Members of the Public Health Committee of the Polish Academy of Sciences, the Office of the World Health Organization in Poland, members of the Board of the Polish Society of Cardio-Thoracic Surgeons, and representatives of the Council for Public Health.
